International Business Women's Group

A prestigious international organisation based in Dubai, which offers it's Members great networking opportunities & provides consistent professional & efficient support & a strong platform of events through which to share experiences & best practice.

What do we stand for?

"The belief that every business woman, no matter her nationality, culture or belief, deserves to be supported in her efforts to be recognised as a professional career woman as well as a companion, wife and mother.

We, as women in business, are here to support other women in business – across all nationalities - in a focused, targeted environment where we can effectively connect and discuss issues relevant to our careers and lives with our same sex peers."

Who is our target audience?

Professional businesswomen across all industry sectors and across all nationalities who bring a specified level of career and personal experience to the group and who are able to share their experiences and wisdom through a networking forum, as well as offer support to others.
